MacKinnon Funeral Home was the former residence of Cardinal Francis Spellman.

This beautiful 18 room house located at 760 Washington Street, Whitman was built by the late Francis Cardinal Spellman in 1934. Spellman built the house for his parents in 1933 and 1934 when he was the auxiliary bishop of Boston.

The brick tudor style house which is patterned after homes the cardinal visited while in Europe, sits on 1.45 acres of land and has 18 rooms, 7 baths, and a former built in pool with pool house and a two car garage. A red upholstered chair on which the Cardinal used to sit is on display beneath a framed picture in one of the sitting rooms. His miter-a hat with peaks worn by bishops and cardinals is also there.

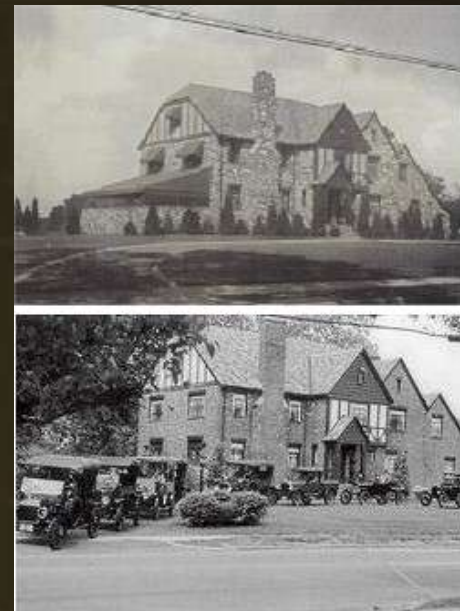

In 1936 while still bishop Cardinal Spellman made several visits to the house and was accompanied by Italian Cardinal Pacelli who later became Pope Pius XII.

The House remained in the Spellman family until after his death, passing from Marian Pegnam (the cardinal's sister) to her daughter Frances McCarthy. In 1974 the house was purchased by Mr. Robert Johnston of Johnston Funeral Home, and then to Paul O'Connor of the John J. O'Connor & Son Funeral Home in 1993. Richard D. MacKinnon, Sr. managed the funeral home under O' Connor and later purchased the home in 1999.

The MacKinnon Family has operated the Funeral home since 1993 and after purchasing the property in 1999, continues to own and manage the MacKinnon Funeral Home, currently under Thomas J. MacKinnon as owner, director as well as in residence.

Pre-Arrange

When it comes time for end of life decisions to be made, shouldn't you make the decisions? The pre- arrangements you make will reflect your exact wishes and desires. Pre-arranging your own service will help to ease the burden of your family at time of loss and pain. It will also alleviate any complexities, questions, problems or differences, which can occur among family members.

- Pre-payment will protect you from the rising cost of prices.
- It will not be a financial burden on your loved ones.
- When you plan ahead you know that your wishes will be fulfilled.
- We provide free consultation of funeral arrangements.
- We would be glad to discuss types of services and pricing with no obligation.
